

Blagica Novkovski

Blagica Novkovska was appointed Director General of the State Statistical Office in September 2006. She holds a Master Degree in Social Sciences and Ph.D. in Economics from the Sts. Cyril and Methodius University of Skopje.

Ms. Novkovska has authored large number of papers, documents, reports and discussion papers in the areas of macroeconomy, demography, gender, poverty, social exclusion and quality management. As experienced statistician, Ms. Novkovska has been a member of many national teams responsible for the preparation of different national strategies. Ms. Novkovska became elected member of the ISI in 2011 and is also member of several national and international associations.

She was responsible for field research for two surveys organized by UNODC: Corruption in the Republic of Macedonia: bribery as experienced by population and Business, Corruption and Crime in the Republic of Macedonia: the impact of bribery and other crime on private enterprise.