

Guy Peters

B. Guy Peters is Maurice Falk Professor of Government at the University of Pittsburgh, and also Distinguished Professor of Comparative Governance at Zeppelin University, Germany. He holds a PhD from Michigan State University and honorary doctorates from three European universities. He is currently co-editor of the European Political Science Review and was founding co-editor of Governance, as well as several book series on public administration.

Professor Peters has written or edited over seventy books in the fields of governance, public administration and public policy. His most recent books are Pursuing Horizontal Management, Research Strategies in Comparative Politics, and the Politics of Representative Bureaucracy (with Patrick von Maravic and Eckhard Schroeter). He has also served as a consultant on public administration for international organizations and for several national governments.