

Fabio Piacenti

Graduate in Sociology and Educational Sciences, is the Chairman of the Independent Institute of Economic and Social Research EURES, which he founded in 1998. Expert qualitative and quantitative analysis, has worked as a consultant at several Italian research institutes. Since 2008, teaches Judicial Statistics at the Master in Forensic Science from the University of Rome "La Sapienza", performing seminars and lessons at the University of Rome, Naples and Chieti.

Scholar homicidal phenomenon in Italy, particularly in the interpersonal sphere, he has published numerous articles and participated in the drafting of several books on the phenomenon homicidal. Is editor of the Report on the Intentional Murder in Italy (last edition, 2013), carried out by the EURES co-operation in the Central Directorate of the Criminal Police - Criminal Analysis Service of the Ministry of the Interior, the Master in Forensic Sciences and the Information Agency news "Ansa".