

2nd International Conference
on Governance, Crime and Justice Statistics 2014

Eli Silverman

Eli B. Silverman, Ph. D, is Professor Emeritus, John Jay College of Criminal Justice and Graduate Center, City University of New York. He served with the U.S. Department of Justice and National Academy of Public Administration, Washington D. C and Exchange Professor, Police Staff College in England. Areas of interest include: police performance management, community policing, policy analysis, stop and frisk, and Compstat. He recently testified as an expert witness In the New York City "stop and frisk" trial. The decision cited his research.

Professor Silverman has consulted with and trained police agencies in the U.S., U.K., Canada, Mexico, Europe, Asia and Australia. . Among his recent works are: The Crime Numbers Game: Management by Manipulation and NYPD Battles Crime: Innovations in Policing.